Paulo Freire Center

October

Monthly Newsletter

Dear Parents:

Hello, my name is Berenice Lopez and I am doing 250 hours of student teaching service here at Paulo Freire Center this semester. I will be completing my Associate's degree by the end of this year in Early Childhood Education. It has been a great pleasure to work with each and every family as well as with all children everyday.

Please feel free to stop by and speak to me if you have any questions or concerns, I will be more than happy to lend a helping hand.

Reminders...

- ❖ We are now in the month of October, and the days have become a little cooler. Please dress your dress your little ones in warm and snuggly clothing.
- ❖ Do you know that we have extra clothes and hand-me-downs for families to take home? Check out the Extra Clothing Rack
- ❖ We would like to encourage parents to come in and volunteer in our classroom.
- ❖ We have a selection of free books in the first floor near the office, feel free to take some books home for your children.
- ❖ Lastly, we invite parents to take advantage of our parent resource room. Useful resources are always updated and Wi-Fi is available.
